

Anderson Falls Heritage Society presents:

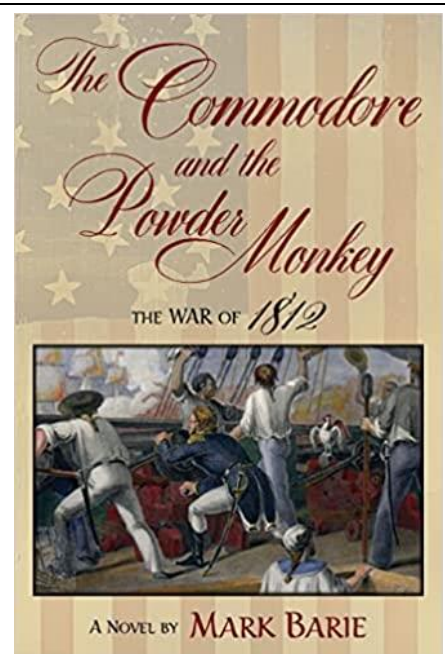

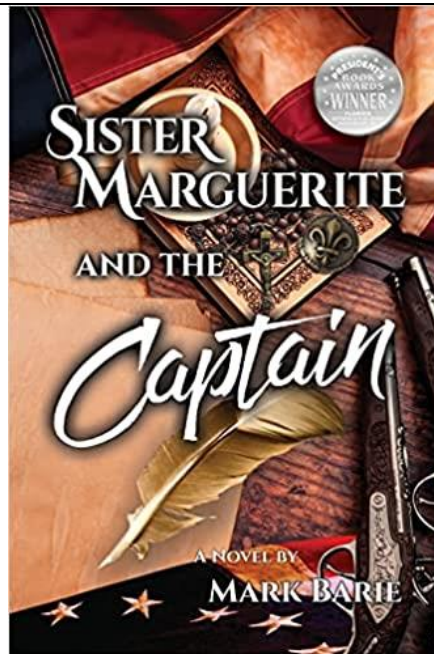

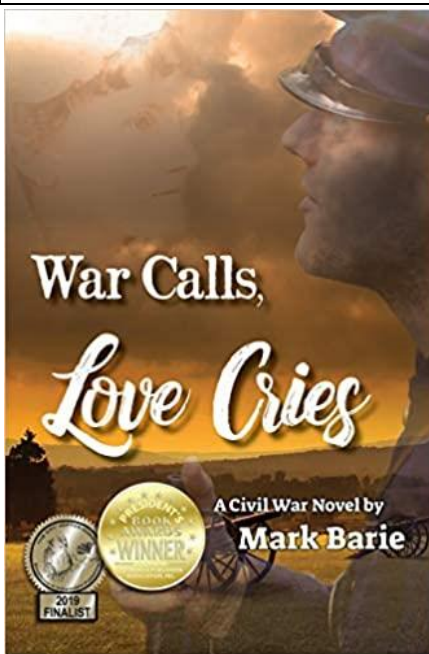

SEVEN FACTS ABOUT THE WAR OF 1812 THAT WILL AMAZE YOU!

Wednesday, September 21, 2022

7:00 PM

Keeseville Fire Department

8 Pleasant Street, Keeseville, NY

Program Summary: Mark's latest novel, "The Commodore and the Powder Monkey" is about a young girl, disguised as a boy, on Commodore McDonough's flag ship during the War of 1812. As a result of writing this, book Mark has assembled this presentation.

Guest Speaker: Mark Barie is an award-winning author, originally from Champlain New York. Mark and his wife Christine have been living year-round in Sebring Florida for the past six years. His first novel, a Civil War love story centered in Keeseville, NY, garnered national attention as a finalist in the prestigious Eric Hoffer Book Awards.

www.andersonfalls.com

(518) 834-9219